

Things to Include in your Time Capsule:

- Kids artwork, crafts or school projects
- An outline of your handprint
- A daily newspaper
- A weekly news magazine (Time, Newsweek)
- An entertainment magazine (People, US)
- Special interest magazines (Sports Illustrated)
- A list of popular expressions (slang)
- A popular toy or doll
- A sample of product packaging (empty Coke® can, etc.)
- An extended family tree
- A floor plan of your home
- A menu from a favorite restaurant
- Items from your job or school (business card, etc.)
- Invitations you recently received
- A hospital bracelet from any hospital stay.
- A key to something
- A receipt from the grocery store
- A paycheck stub or utility bills
- An ad or coupons from a popular clothing or department store
- A new car brochure or ad
- Memorabilia from 2020
- A full or partial diary
- Current maps
- Sports or activity memorabilia

Photographs:

Photos are a must have for any family time capsule! Below is a list of photos we recommend including in your family time capsule!

Pro-Tip: Have a scavenger hunt and take all photos in a single afternoon, then upload them with other photos you have on your phone to the Walgreen's or Walmart App and they will be ready for pick-up in as little as one hour!

- A family photo with all members of your household
- Selfies
- School pictures or photos from school programs
- Photos of family milestones
- Halloween costume photos
- Masked photos and photos without masks
- The exterior of a gas station (including price board)
- Downtown or suburban skyline and storefronts
- A succession of cars traveling down the street
- Advertising billboards
- Scenes from your neighborhood
- Anything that you think is likely to change
- Interior and exterior shots of your home
- Photos of you in your favorite daily clothes
- Photos of your car(s)
- Photos of your workplace/School
- Celebration or fun-time photos
- Photos of your current technology
- Photos of you and friends in the latest fashions
- Photos of your hands or feet